Q&A

Q3 2025 highlights

Q3 performance

- TCE income Shipping Q3 2025 was US$51,300 per available day and US$48,700 per calendar day, supported by our time charter coverage of 44% of available days at US$51,200 per day
- Q3 2025 profit after tax was US$57 million, and the profit attributable to equity holders of the company was US$57 million representing an earnings per share of US$0.38
- BW Product Services reported a US$23 million gross loss and a loss after tax of US$29 million for this quarter

The company declared a Q3 cash dividend of $0.40 per share, equivalent to 75% of Shipping NPAT¹ Q3 2025 in line with the dividend policy

Dry dock program increases offhire days

- In Q3 2025, 168 days were related to vessels being in dry dock
- A total of 121 days are expected to be off-hire due to dry-docking in Q4
- For 2026, the company will have a total of 13 vessels scheduled for dry docking

Other subsequent events

Two ship financing facilities were voluntarily cancelled in October and November 2025 on the back of strong liquidity, leading to the repayment of US$36 million term loan and reduction of US$216 million in available revolving credit facilities

Market outlook

Underlying fundamentals remain robust

LPG export fundamentals are expected to remain sound even as fleet inefficiencies dissipate alongside reduced trade tensions. Additional export capacity, new gas projects and ongoing constraints in the Panama Canal will likely support VLGC earnings

Trading inefficiencies

- · Overall trading inefficiencies are likely to diminish somewhat following reduced trade tensions between USA and China
- · Vessel repositioning could however trigger a period of reduced tonnage availability in the near term

Panama v. Cape routing

- More container vessels have been using the Panama Canal this year, diverting VLGCs around the Cape of Good Hope
- Higher traffic from container vessels, VLGCs and VLECs will likely push a growing portion of VLGCs out of the canal in coming years

LPG exports US / Middle East

- US LPG export growth is expected to continue driven by higher NGL content in the Permian basin and new US Gulf export terminals
- · Stable OPEC+ production as well as new gas projects will lend support to Middle East LPG exports going forward

VLGC global fleet

- The current VLGC fleet consists of 413 ships
- 11 VLGCs have been delivered this year, with 1 more to be delivered before the end of the year
- VLGC orderbook currently consists of 108 ships, with 2027 seeing the highest number of deliveries

FFA market

• The Ras Tanura - Chiba FFA market for the FY 2026 is currently reflecting earnings slightly above US$45,000 per day, albeit with limited liquidity

Market overview

Company performance

Q&A

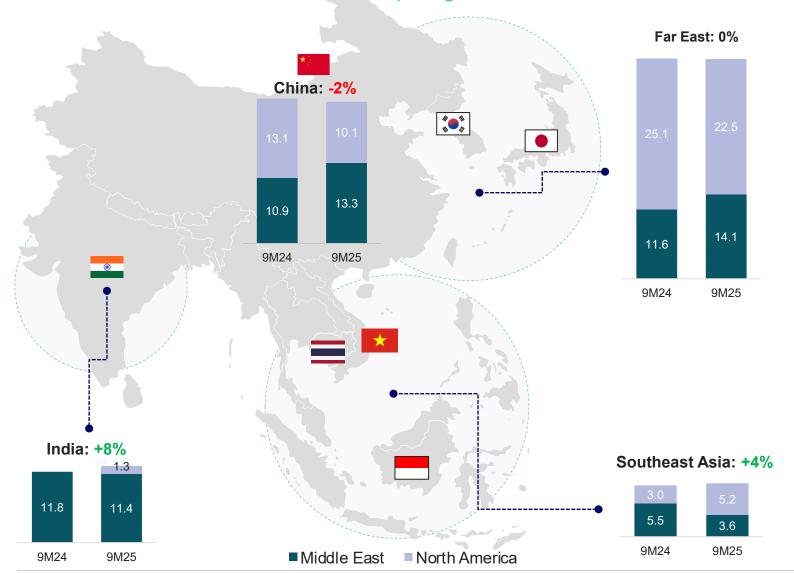

VLGC freight market reactions to geopolitical events in Q3/Q4

Changing LPG import dynamics

India has been the main driver for import growth so far in 2025

India imports up 8% y/y

- Highest growth among the major LPG importers
- Growing end user demand with stable domestic production
- Imports are mainly sourced from the Middle East, but some volumes are still arriving from the USA

Far East imports flat

- Limited growth largely due to staggered China imports
- China has taken a higher share of Middle East volumes due to trade tensions
- High PDH run rates to support import recovery in China

Southeast Asia pivoted to N. America

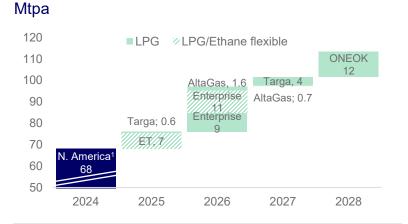

- North American volumes have replaced Middle East volumes during periods of trade tensions
- Propane pricing strategy from Middle East conducive to regaining market share in Asia

Export growth story to continue

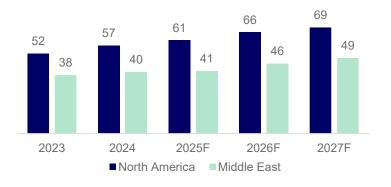

Terminal expansions and gaseous drilling wells lifting LPG exports

N. American terminal expansion plans

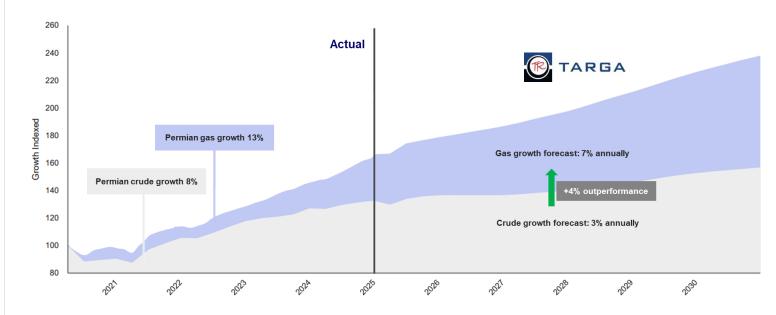

LPG exports forecasts

Mt (VLGC only)

Permian oil is becoming more gaseous

Permian basin growth points to strong LPG production

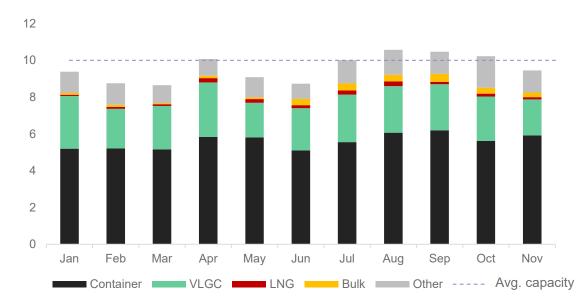

- Permian crude oil wells are becoming more gaseous
- Gas production set to grow twice as fast as annual crude oil
- Gas production remains steadier than oil production

Panama Canal

Remains a major driver for fleet inefficiency

Panama Canal transits

Transits/day, new locks

Fluctuating container traffic is driving canal congestion

- Container transits have fluctuated strongly in 2025
- This in turn has caused capacity issues and led to more VLGCs ballasting around Cape of Good Hope
- Auction fees have also seen significant volatility in times of limited slot availability

VLGC usage of the Panama Canal

US - Far East route

Canal congestion is diverting VLGCs around Cape of Good Hope

- Ballasting VLGCs are most sensitive to canal congestion
- Recently, even laden usage by VLGCs has been dropping

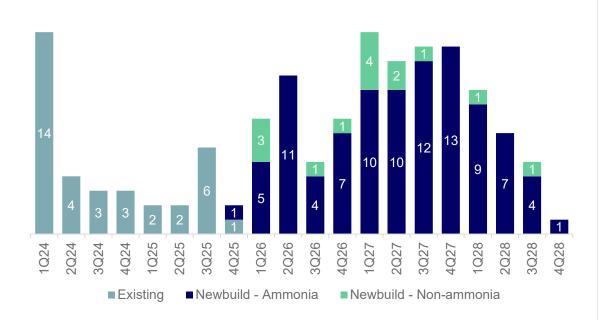

VLGC fleet and newbuildings

Only one more VLGC to be delivered in 2025, with staggered fleet growth for most of 2026
